Topic >> Jesus Christ paid for the sin death of your eternal soul on the cross

The good news of the Resurrection of JESUS was preached from the start; it was not a late development decades after the last witnesses had died out. Rather, it was believed and preached in Jerusalem from the beginning of the Christian movement while hundreds of people who seen Jesus alive after His death were still alive and are additional evidence that He rose again.

1st Corinthians 15:5-8 KJV “And that he was seen of Cephas, [Peter] then of the twelve: 6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. 7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. 8 And last of all he was seen of me [Paul] also, as of one born out of due time.”

The Power of the Resurrection

Jesus came to earth with a message of hope. His love and compassion reached out to everyone, including the outcasts of society. He healed the sick, comforted the distressed, and preached salvation. Many received his teachings and followed Him. The religious leaders felt threatened by his message of love and humility and plotted to kill Him. He was betrayed, arrested, and sentenced to die. As the angry mob followed, Roman soldiers took Jesus up the hill of Golgotha and nailed Him to a wooden cross between two thieves.

Jesus was placed on the cross at nine o'clock in the morning. At noon the sky darkened for three hours. Afterward, Jesus cried with a loud voice, “It is finished,” and He gave up his life. There was a mighty earthquake that split the rocks and opened many graves and brought the dead to life.

Jesus's disciples took his body down from the cross. They lovingly placed it in a new tomb and closed the entrance with a large stone. Early in the morning of the third day there was a great earthquake. An angel came down from heaven and rolled the stone away from the tomb. Some women who loved Him came to anoint his body, and they were surprised to find the tomb empty. They were met by two angels who told them, “He is not here, but is risen, remember how he spoke unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words.

John 21:25 KJV “And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written.”

The “Moment” we believe Jesus Christ paid for our sins we are “SEALED” with the Holy Spirit

Paul's first letter to the Corinthian church was written in the 50's AD. approx 20 years after Jesus's death already an early source But it contains an even earlier credal formula in 1st Corinthians 15, which is generally held to go back to within 2 to 3 years of Jesus's death.

The history of the people of the early church were in the best position to know what had happened, and whether reports of a crucifixion an empty tomb, and post-mortem appearances to many were true. The true historicity of the book of (Acts 5) supports these claims and others which bolster the case that people well equipped to know the truth were persuaded of the Resurrection. This message spread not just in Jerusalem but throughout the Roman Empire,
